B.A. Arabic (General)

Under CCFUP/NEP-2020

Programme Specific Outcomes

The Programme:

PSO-1: Assists the students in improving reading, writing and communicative skills in Arabic.

PSO-2: helps the students in acquiring basic computer knowledge and its usage in/for Arabic language.

PSO-3: Assists the learner in gaining a comprehensive understanding of Arabic language, syntax, and rhetoric.

PSO-4: Enhances the proficiency of the learner in reading, writing, and speaking Arabic.

PSO-5: Facilitates the translation of texts from Arabic to English and vice versa.

PSO-6: Assists students in acquiring a comprehensive understanding of the modern history and culture of the Arab World.

PSO-7: Assists students in comprehending the development of Arabic literature across several historical periods, such as the pre-Islamic, Islamic, Umayyad, and Abbasid periods.

PSO-8: Provides students with practical experience of reading Arabic texts from various literary eras.

PSO-9: Provides students with the necessary knowledge and abilities to meet the constantly evolving professional needs in the field concerned.

PSO-10: Get students ready for a variety of competitive examinations, including as those in management, teaching, administration, translation, and interpretation.

Course Outcomes

❖ Major/DS Course (Core), Code: ARBC1011: Arabic Language and Applied Grammar-I

➤ After the completion of this course the students will be able to:

CO-1: Identify, read and write Arabic Alphabets.
CO-2: Read and write simple sentences in Arabic.
CO-3: Distinguish between gender and number in Arabic.
CO-4: Make use of simple Arabic interrogative phrases/sentences.
CO-5: Give vocabulary of objects around them.

❖ Minor Course, Code: ARBC1021: Arabic Language and Applied Grammar-I

➤ After the completion of this course the students will be able to:

CO-1: Identify, read and write Arabic Alphabets.
CO-2: Read and write simple sentences in Arabic.
CO-3: Distinguish between gender and number in Arabic.
CO-4: Make use of simple Arabic interrogative phrases/sentences.
CO-5: Give vocabulary of objects around them.

❖ Skill Enhancement Course (SEC), Code: ARBC1051: Translation and Basic Knowledge of Computer

➤ After the completion of this course the students will be able to:

CO-1: Develop the ability to write basic Arabic sentences with ease.
CO-2: Translate the basic Arabic sentences into English and vice versa.
CO-3: Communicate in the Arabic language in a variety of contexts, and read and write Arabic text as well as.
CO-4: Develop Arabic translation abilities (Basic Level)
CO-5: Easily use a computer, and work on software such as Microsoft word and Power Point etc in/for Arabic Language.

❖ Multi/Inter disciplinary, Code: ARBC1031: Elementary Arabic: Grammar and Communication

➤ After the completion of this course the students will be able to:

CO-1: Acquire knowledge of the alphabet and vowel signs in Arabic.
CO-2: Learn & Identify split and joined letters in Arabic.
CO-3: Read simple Arabic text (Basic Level).
CO-4: Use pronouns and demonstrative pronouns in Arabic Sentences.
CO-5: Use equivalent/vocabulary of objects around them in Arabic.
CO-6: Compose simple nominal sentences in Arabic.

❖ Ability Enhancement Course (AEC) [L1-1 MIL], Code: ARBC1041: Communicative Arabic

➢ After the completion of this course the students will be able to:

CO-1: Live and work in a setting where the Arabic language is spoken.
CO-2: Read and write Arabic comfortably and communicate effectively with native speakers in a variety of contexts.
CO-3: Develop speaking, listening, reading, and writing abilities in a balanced manner.

Semester-II

❖ Major/DS Course (Core), Code: ARBC1011: Arabic Language and Applied Grammar-I
➢ After the completion of this course the students will be able to:

CO-1: Compose and write phrases and sentences in Arabic.
CO-2: Read and understand compound and complex Arabic sentences.
CO-3: Identify the Arabic root system.
CO-4: Conjugate several types of verbs in Arabic.
CO-5: Use both nominal and verbal sentences in Arabic.
CO-6: Enhance Arabic vocabulary.

❖ Minor Course, Code: ARBC1021: Arabic Language and Applied Grammar-I
➢ After the completion of this course the students will be able to:

CO-1: Compose and write phrases and sentences in Arabic.
CO-2: Read and understand compound and complex Arabic sentences.
CO-3: Identify the Arabic root system.
CO-4: Conjugate several types of verbs in Arabic.
CO-5: Use both nominal and verbal sentences in Arabic.

CO-6: Enhance Arabic vocabulary.

❖ Skill Enhancement Course (SEC), Code: ARBC1051: Translation and Basic Knowledge of Computer

➢ After the completion of this course the students will be able to:

CO-1: Develop the skills of writing basic and simple Arabic sentences.
CO-2: Translate the basic sentences from Arabic to English and vice versa.
CO-3: Communicate in the Arabic language in a variety of contexts and can read and write Arabic text.
CO-4: Develop Arabic translation abilities.
CO-5: Compose short essays and paragraphs in Arabic.

❖ Multi/Inter disciplinary, Code: ARBC1031: Elementary Arabic: Grammar and Communication

➢ After the completion of this course the students will be able to:

CO-1: Compose and write simple sentences in Arabic.
CO-2: Read basic Arabic text.
CO-3: Understand basic structure of sentences in Arabic language.
CO-4: Use both nominal and verbal sentences in Arabic with greater ease.
CO-5: Give Arabic equivalent/vocabulary of the items in and around them.