Annual Report of NSOU

2023-24

Annual Report on Post-Graduate Admission and Academic Activities

Netaji Subhas Open University (NSOU) Study Centre, Hiralal Bhakat College, Nalhati

1. About the Study Centre

Hiralal Bhakat College has been approved as a Post-Graduate Study Centre/Learner Support Centre (Code: S-05) of Netaji Subhas Open University (NSOU) from the Academic Year 2022–23. Renowned for its commitment to providing quality education, the College is dedicated to offering comprehensive academic and learner support to students pursuing Post-Graduate courses through the Open and Distance Learning mode.

The Study Centre aims to facilitate the successful completion of academic programmes by providing necessary academic guidance and support to learners. It also seeks to enhance students' prospects for employment and placement across various sectors, as well as to encourage their participation in research fellowship programmes and further academic pursuits.

The processes of registration, renewal, submission of examination forms, and publication of results are managed centrally online by the University. The Study Centre, however, remains committed to providing robust academic support and assistance to learners so that they can successfully navigate the requirements of their respective programmes.

For further information, learners may visit the official website of Netaji Subhas Open University: www.wbnsou.ac.in.

2. About Netaji Subhas Open University

Netaji Subhas Open University (NSOU) is a State Open University established under the Netaji Subhas Open University Act, 1997 (West Bengal Act XIX of 1997). The University was recognized by the University Grants Commission (UGC) on 20 August 1997. NSOU is presently accredited by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) with an 'A' Grade.

Through its network of Study Centres/Learner Support Centres, the University provides opportunities for higher education through the Open and Distance Learning system. The Hiralal Bhakat College Study Centre, as an approved Post-Graduate Learner Support Centre, contributes to this objective by extending academic and learner support to students in the region.

3. Administrative Structure

The Study Centre functions under the administrative leadership of the Principal/Host Head of Hiralal Bhakat College, with the Coordinator responsible for the coordination of the activities of the NSOU Study Centre.

5. Admission Process

Admission to the Post-Graduate programmes is conducted through the online admission system of NSOU. The admission notice for the Academic Year 2023–24 stated that interested candidates were required to visit the University website and select Hiralal Bhakat College Study Centre (Code: S-05) from the appropriate option while completing the online admission form.

For the 2023–24 admission cycle, the admission period was from 15 December 2023 at 10:00 AM to 10 January 2024 at 9:00 PM.

The Study Centre provides necessary assistance and guidance to prospective and enrolled learners regarding the admission process and other academic requirements.

6. Academic Counselling and Learner Support

A major strength of the Study Centre is its panel of academic counsellors. The counsellors provide academic guidance to learners in their respective disciplines and contribute to the effective implementation of the University's academic programmes.

The available academic counsellors are as follows:

Sl. No.	Academic Counsellor	Year of Appointment	Highest Qualification	Teaching Experience (Years)	Subject

The academic counsellors represent a substantial pool of experienced teaching personnel across the major disciplines served by the Study Centre.

7. Student Enrolment: Academic Year 2023–24

The Study Centre continued to receive applications for Post-Graduate programmes in the subsequent academic year. The available enrolment record for 2023–24 is as follows:

Category	PGBG	PGEG	PGHI	PGPS	MLIS	PGMT	Total
Applied	23	11	5	1	—	—	40
Paid	18	7	5	—	—	—	30
H.O. Received Candidate	18	7	5	—	—	—	30
Enrolled Candidate	18	7	5	—	—	—	30

The record specifically identifies these figures as the NSOU PG enrolled students count for the Academic Year 2023–24 under the NSOU HBC Study Centre.

8. Role of the Study Centre

The Study Centre serves as an important local academic support mechanism for learners pursuing higher education through the Open and Distance Learning mode. Its principal functions include:

- facilitating the admission and enrolment process;
- providing information and guidance to prospective learners;
- extending academic counselling through qualified academic counsellors;
- assisting learners in understanding academic and examination-related requirements;
- facilitating communication between learners and the University;
- providing necessary administrative support at the local level; and
- creating an academic environment conducive to the successful completion of Post-Graduate programmes.

Although several University processes are conducted centrally through online systems, the Study Centre provides the essential local interface through which learners can obtain guidance and academic support.

9. Overall Assessment

Since its establishment as an NSOU Post-Graduate Study Centre in the Academic Year 2022–23, Hiralal Bhakat College has been making a meaningful contribution to the expansion of access to Post-Graduate education through the Open and Distance Learning system.

The enrolment figures for the first two academic years demonstrate sustained learner interest, with 45 students enrolled in 2022–23 and 30 students enrolled in 2023–24. The presence of a sizeable panel of academic counsellors, supported by the administrative team of the College, provides the Study Centre with the necessary human resources to support learners across different disciplines.

The Study Centre remains committed to strengthening academic support, facilitating learner engagement, and assisting students in completing their Post-Graduate programmes successfully. Through continued coordination between the University, the Study Centre administration, academic counsellors, and learners, the Centre seeks to further contribute to the objectives of accessible, flexible, and quality higher education.
